Bristol.

Merchants complain of a dull trade all round.

The Bristol cornet band use the basement room in Holley hall for a band room.

Col. G. S. Nichols, pension agent, was in town this week looking up pension cases.

Miss Sarah Averill of Rutland is stopping with her brother, Dea. Averill, this winter.

The sick list here is still quite large.
The chief ailments are colds and lung troubles.

Col. F. V. Randall lectured at Holley hall on Jan. 22; subject, "Battle of Gettysburg."

L. L. Averill of Rutland was in town last week. Mr. Averill was formerly a resident of this town.

New Haven.

There is still much sickness about town.

G. W. Barton has returned from his trip West.

Mrs. Jeremiah Powers has had two shocks of paralysis.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Nash buried an infant child Sunday, the 11th.

Mrs. O. H. Eaton of Monkton is boarding at the Parth hotel for a few weeks.

Men and teams are busy now, and the crusted snow makes sport for the small boy.

Dr. F. C. Sanborn, late of this town, is clerking temporarily for F. W. Nash in Bristol.

The pastor announces an exchange with Rev. A. A. Robertson of Vergennes for next Sabbath.

Mr. A. J. Mason, who had the misfortune to break some of his ribs, by falling from a load of hay, is improving.

Rev. M. C. Stebbins of Cornwall occupied the desk Sunday the 10th, in exchange with the pastor. He gave a fine, practical discourse from John xxi. 22.

Miss Ella Rogers, who has been very sick at her brother's, has so far recovered as to be taken home. Mrs. L. O.
Chapin has also gone to Monkton to be cared for by her mother.

Mr. A. M. Roscoe, who has been in a very critical condition from bilious pneumonia, is, we are glad to learn, at present writing, considered somewhat better, his symptoms being more favorable.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Wright of Nevada are making a brief visit in town. Mr.
Wright is the eldest son of the late Dea.
Alvah S. Wright, and left this place nearly thirty years since for the West, returning only for a short stay nine years ago. He is superintendent of bridges, stone work, etc., on the Central Pacific railroad, his division comprising nearly six hundred miles.

At the annual meeting of the Congregational church, Friday, the 9th, the following officers were elected: Clerk, E. A.
Doud; treasurer, Hugh Potter; auditor, L. O. Chapin; examining committee, H.
R. Barrows, A. M. Roscoe, E. B. Hickok. The benevolent contributions the past year were $519.79; of this sum the Sunday-school gave $88.70; from the ladies for foreign and home missionary work came $103.48; from a friend, $100, and from the Munger band, $4.00.

How true the saying, "In the midst of life we are in death." Only a few short weeks since we laid our loved Flora in her bed of evergreens, and now another, the strong young man, in the full vigor of life, our friend and townsman, George C. Wicker, has been suddenly called away, after a brief illness of five days.
Although suffering from a severe cold, he was upon the streets on Monday, feeling no concern, but later the disease developed into a more serious form, and before danger was realized the result could not be averted and his death occurred on the evening of Saturday, Jan. 10, of typhoid pneumonia. The funeral services were attended at his late residence the following Wednesday. Mr. Wicker united with the Congregational church in 1868, and was for many years a member of the choir. His loss will be felt by a large circle of friends and the family have universal sympathy. But most of all will his cheering presence be missed from the home circle. The parents, in their declining years, the lonely widow with three children, will experience a hitherto unknown grief.

"How looks beyond the bounds of time, Shall rise in full immortal prime And bloom to fade no more."

[Deferred]
The Lake Daumore property has passed back into the hands of Hon. J. M.
Dyer within a few days.

Rev. Mr. Giddings has been preaching on trial at the village church, and we understand that he is hired to serve the church as pastor there the coming year.

A barn belonging to Myron Page was burned on New Year's night, with several tons of hay and 40 sheep. The sheep belonged to Henry Goodrich. The originator of the fire is unknown.

Dr. Orlo Bump, town superintendent, is teaching school in district No. 3. He has taught three winter terms in this district before and has proved that he can teach a good school as well as deal out medicine.

Rev. Charles Nichols of Boston has been holding a series of meetings at the Congregational church, which have proved of great benefit to the church.
Mr. Nichols is a religious teacher has but few superiors.

Sunday, January 11, was quarterly meeting at the Methodist church. Presiding Elder Bennett was present, morning and evening, and preached two very impressive sermons. All the services of the day were very interesting. Three persons were received in full connection with the church and six on probation.

West Cornwall.

Mr. H. E. Taylor of West Cornwall has refused $250 for one-half interest in his black filly, "Lady Cutts," eight months old, by Ben Franklin; her dam a very fast road mare, a daughter of Delong's Ethan Allen. There is no reason why she will not make a mark that will be astonishing.

Bridport.
The snow storm of last Friday leaves us fine sleighing.
We see bills up for the Magician Thompson to-night (Friday).

Mrs. Phelps and father, Mr. Barrett, and son, Sidney, left on Monday for Morish, N. Y., where they will make their home.

On Thursday next the Ladies' Aid society will give an entertainment in the town hall, consisting of tableaux, singing, reading, declamation, etc. All are invited to attend.

Ripton.

Mrs. S. C. Gibbs continues quite feeble. She has been ill for some time. At last accounts she was improving.

The lyceum meeting of last Thursday evening was called to order by the president, E. H. Matteson. The monitor for the evening was Geo. Hale. The secretary's report of the last meeting was read and adopted. Music was given by Miss Eva Albee, and a recitation by Miss Lillie Matteson. The paper was read by Miss Myra Fisher. The vice-president was called to the chair. Music by Mr. William Tinkham and Dan. Paton followed.
The question was, "Resolved, That the evils resulting from ignorance and superstition are greater than those resulting from avarice and ambition." It was discussed in the affirmative by Amherst Noble, assisted by H. C. Powers, and in the negative by Arthur Brown, assisted by E. H. Matteson, George Fisher, W. S.
Huntley and Silas Manning, the committee on decision, decided for the negative.
The question was further discussed by J.
S. Chandler. It then went to the house on the merits of the case; the vote was in the affirmative. Remarks were made by H. C. Powers, E. H. Matteson, W. S.
Huntley and Timothy Billings. The question for the next meeting is, "Resolved, That Columbus should be more honored by Americans than Washington."

Shoreham.

Mr. Wright, our popular landlord, had a very nice ball Friday evening, the 9th. There were 25 couples present.

Joseph Longware, the young son of our village blacksmith, has made a fine bicycle and also a wind-mill for his father's shop. He is a natural mechanic.

Rev. S. A. Parker will preach in the Academy hall in Shoreham next Sunday, Jan. 25. Subject in the morning, "Christian Courage"; in the afternoon,
"The Value of Public Worship."

Mr. Lord, the importer of Holstein cattle, has driven to the Cream Hill stock farm four more head of cattle. The youngest, which was only a yearling, could not be purchased for $1000. Mr.
Lord has made two importations this last year and is doing remarkably well in the business.

Vergennes.

Both our banks have declared a three per cent dividend.

Ice is about ripe and contracts are being made with our artists in that line.

The Shade Roller company are running five days each week, the idle day being Monday.

Saw logs are coming into Fisher's mill, the few days sleighing making things lively for him.

H. H. Bishop of Bolton, the popular landlord of the Bishop House in that place, was in town last week.

Milton Hicks of Springfield, Vt., is visiting at J. G. Spaulding's. He has been attending the Normal school at Johnson.

Dr. Maxfield, who was stricken with paralysis a few days since, remains about the same, and is still unable to use his right arm and leg.

Col. Nichols, pension examiner, is in town and will no doubt be kept quite lively with applicants for pension honors and petitions for increase, etc.

Col. Walter Seranton and H. W. Le-Roy of New York were in town last week. Their many friends regret that their stay was not longer. They came on banking business.

The Chas. Shellar house on Water street has been sold by James Rock, agent, to L. F. Benton, who is to deed it to Henry Miller at some future time; consideration, $700.

Capt. L. Mott has purchased a large draft horse to match the one he has been driving for a year or two and he has now a team that can pull anything, even with good care (and they always get that) pull through this hard winter.

A word of caution may be of some advantage to those unfortunate who get terribly wise through the effects of liberal potatoes of "wisdom water," as the authorities are getting the jail stove in readiness to heat up at a moment's warning. No distinction is to be made regarding creed, color, religion or politics.

It is stated that the State board of agriculture will hold a two-days' session in this city about the first of February.
If so, it is earnestly hoped the farmers from the surrounding towns will turn out, as very many matters of great importance will be brought before this meeting that vitally interest the farmers.

The Eutro Nous dramatic club gave their first entertainment Tuesday evening to a well-filled house. This troupe is composed of home talent and certainly the characters were well put. All seemed at home on the stage, though nearly all were novices in theatricals. Quite a large number were in from the adjoining towns, and Wednesday evening they repeat the play and a house full to overflowing is guaranteed.
